INSTRUMENT DAY - INFORMATION PACK

2009

CLARINET DAY SAT 16 MAY

SAXOPHONE DAY SAT 21 NOV

Our 1-Day instrument days provide an excellent opportunity for musicians to play with others and to learn more about their instrument. A specialist tutor will guide you through group playing and provide insight into both musical and technical aspects. Equipment and repair advice, plus instrument and mouthpiece sampling, will also be available during the day courtesy of Scotland's leading woodwind shop The Wind Section (Edinburgh)

Who the workshops are for:

Instrumentalists from Beginner to Intermediate level.

BEGINNER

Instrumentalists of approx Grade 1-3, or equivalent standard, who have been playing for at least one year. A working knowledge of the instrument should be in place, i.e. you can play in both low and middle registers and know some scales and arpeggios

INTERMEDIATE

Instrumentalists of approx Grade 3-5 standard, or equivalent standard, with a minimum of two years playing experience. A good working knowledge of the instrument throughout low and middle registers is assumed.
